

I yield for the Senator from Oregon.
The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Oregon.

S. RES. 6

Mr. MERKLEY. Madam President, I have a resolution which I send to the desk and ask for its consideration.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will read the resolution by title.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

A resolution (S. Res. 6) to modify extended debate in the Senate to improve the legislative process.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection to proceeding to the resolution?

The Senator from Tennessee.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Reserving the right to object, again, the majority and minority leaders are working together with other Senators to try and find ways we can agree upon to assist in the functioning of the Senate. To give them sufficient time to do that, I do object.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Objection having been heard, the resolution will go over under the rule.

The Senator from Oregon.

Mr. MERKLEY. I thank my colleague from Tennessee for the efforts he is putting forth to find ways to make this body truly engage in dialogue and decisionmaking as the American people expect.

S. RES. 7

Mr. MERKLEY. Madam President, on behalf of Senator LAUTENBERG, I have a resolution which I send to the desk and ask for its consideration.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report the resolution by title.

The legislative clerk read the resolution as follows:

A resolution (S. Res. 7) to permit the Senate to avoid unnecessary delay and vote on matters for which floor debate has ceased.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection to proceeding to the resolution?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Madam President, for the reasons I have stated with the other requests for unanimous consent, I do object.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Objection having been heard, the resolution will go over under the rule.

The Senator from Oregon.

Mr. MERKLEY. Madam President, I look forward to the dialogue among all the Members on how the Senate can reclaim its important role as a deliberative and decisionmaking body.

I want to thank Senator UDALL for having been so involved in this conversation and helping to drive it forward.

TRIBUTES TO DEPARTING SENATORS

HERB KOHL

Mr. SESSIONS. Mr. President, as the year ends, we face the sadness that surrounds the departure of good colleagues. I want to take a minute to express my pleasure in having the opportunity to know and work with Herb Kohl. We have served 16 years together on the Judiciary Committee and in the Senate. He is one of the most accomplished and courteous members of the Senate. His powerful intellect along with his vast private sector experience have given him valuable insight into the issues of our time. We shared a strong belief in the importance of the Littoral Combat Ship and in the end were both pleased to see that program move forward. As a senior member of the Judiciary Committee, Senator Kohl was a faithful member who had a remarkable ability to win the affection and respect of members. He always sought common ground rather than confrontation. It's been a real pleasure for me to get to know and to work with this remarkable, talented and good man. He has given much to the Senate. My best wishes are extended for this next chapter in his life.

TRIBUTE TO STAN LOWE

Mr. BARRASSO. Mr. President, next week in Casper, a member of America's greatest generation will be recognized by the Casper Area Chamber of Commerce for a lifetime of service and leadership. I am honored to tell my colleagues about my friend, R. Stanley Lowe.

In 1943, Stan was in college and had been deferred from the draft because of his studies. But, at age 19, he wanted to do his part to protect our great Nation. He enlisted in the U.S. Merchant Marine. He served on five ships in the Pacific and Atlantic, each voyage lasting several months. Stan became a staff officer, in charge of personnel and payroll. He was also a chaplain and medical officer, called a pharmacist's mate and purser.

Stan served from 1943 to 1946, seeing things that would have a life long impact on him. The Merchant Marine had the highest rate of casualties of any service, dying at a rate of 1 in 26, and Stan was there to help the injured and comfort the dying.

Following his service, he returned to Wyoming to complete his law degree and then practice law in Rawlins. It was there he met the love of his life, Anne "Pat" Kirtland Selden Lowe, while they were skiing. She was remarkable, too. Pat was among the first female geologists—and a scholarship in her name continues to support students pursuing degrees in geology at the University of Wyoming.

Wyoming has benefited immensely from Stan's career. He served in the State House of Representatives and was elected to be the county and prosecuting attorney for Carbon County. He spent the majority of his distinguished career as general counsel for True Oil. In 1985, Stan led a delegation of American lawyers on a goodwill tour to China. The legal profession benefited from his wisdom through his service as counsel for the American Judicature Society.

While practicing law, he never forgot about his service and his fellow veterans. Stan was appointed to the Wyoming Veterans' Affairs Commission by Governor Mike Sullivan in 1991 and upon his retirement he was named chair emeritus. In 2003, Stan was awarded the Civilian Meritorious Service Medal. Stan has led the efforts to expand Wyoming's only Veterans Cemetery. His passion for history paved the ground for the Wyoming Veterans Memorial Museum.

Stan served in supportive and leadership roles in multiple veterans' organizations. Stan is a 3 year district commander of the American Legion. He was recently honored with the title of Honorary Past Department Commander, a title only given four other times in the history of the Wyoming American Legion. Stan continues to highlight veterans events and issues through his weekly article in the Casper Journal and attends almost every troop homecoming and veterans event.

Wyoming's veterans have benefited immensely from Stan Lowe's wisdom and leadership. Stan will turn 90 this year. Wyoming continues to look to Stan as the voice for veterans. My wife, Bobbi, and I are happy to have Stan as our friend, and veterans all over Wyoming are fortunate because Stan chose to serve.
